

[illegible]

pinions to these, and it is an improper use of words as the Herald, or the persons who think

[illegible]

to prevent armed men from going into said Territory disturb the public peace, or aid in the enforcement or assistance of real or pretended laws."

[illegible]

... of said Territories, or any female lawfully held in vice, if in like manner removed without said Territories before the expiration of that date, shall not be ly

[illegible]

ces were such as to justify Col. Sumner in employing ary force to disperse the Assembly at Topeka, and ally appealing the case was one upon which, by the testimony of the witnesses, it was clear that the administration, alarmed at the possibility of public opinion turning against them, had concluded to repudiate the acts of Governor Wilkison.

Tom at first denied any knowledge of him, but

[illegible]

